

Dr. Muhammad Zubair Khan (Biography)

Dr. Muhammad Zubair Khan earned a PhD in entrepreneurial finance at the Queens University Belfast (UK) in 2013 where he was HEC fellow. He was a post-doc fellow from the University of Kentucky (USA) during 2014-2016. Dr. Khan has developed several international partnerships across universities in Pakistan and USA. He has completed two US Government Sponsored projects (worth 16 million) to train university faculty across Pakistan and Afghanistan as Team Lead. He has also earned a KP Government research project on the growth of SMEs in the KP. He has served several roles including Founding Director Student Start-up Business Center (SSBC), Director Institute of Management Sciences, and Director Finance at UST Bannu. Currently, he is working as an Assistant Professor in Management and Entrepreneurship. Dr. Khan's research concerns entrepreneurship, digital technologies, and institutionalism. He has presented his work at various national and international conferences in the Texas, US, Vilnius (Lithuania) and Dubai (UAE). Dr. Khan is also the author of Strategic Plan 2018-2023 and 2025-30 of the University of Science and Technology Bannu. Dr. Khan acquired two-month extensive Training, at University of Kentucky, United States. He is a certified master trainer from University of Kentucky USA, Lahore University of Management Sciences (LUMS), and National Academy of Higher Education, HEC Pakistan.