

Dr. Ikram Ullah Khan (Biography)

Dr Ikram Ullah Khan has received PhD in Business Administration from the School of Management, University of Science and Technology of China (USTC), Hefei, China. Currently, serving as Assistant Professor in Finance at the Institute of Management Sciences, University of Science and Technology Bannu, KP, Pakistan. His research interests include Digital Banking/Finance, Behavioral Finance, Green Banking/Finance, and Information/Technology Management. He has published several articles in international quality journals.