

Muhammad Riaz Khan (Biography)

Muhammad Riaz Khan has over 16 years of experience in higher education, teaching, training, corporate and institutional development. Currently serving as Lecturer and Deputy Director (additional charge), with a proven track record in academic leadership and youth empowerment.

Holding a PhD (in progress), an MS in Entrepreneurship, and an MBA in Human Resource Management (Gold Medalist) with blend of academic excellence and practical expertise to foster innovation, entrepreneurship, and organizational growth.

Internationally trained at the University of Kentucky and Ball State University, USA, with specialized certifications in Business Administration, Entrepreneurship and Career Services. As a Master Trainer for Project I and II by the United States Educational Foundation Pakistan (USEFP) and the Higher Education Commission (HEC), having trained hundreds of faculty members.